First day

Morning time

The starting point is Jeddah

Reaching AIUla

Check in to the hotel

Overnight in a 3-star hotel

Day 2

-eat breakfast

-Wadi Al-Ula: It is a fertile valley located in the center of the city. The valley includes many farms and orchards, in addition to many archaeological sites.

-Go to a restaurant and have lunch

-Return to the hotel and take a rest.

-Old Village: Modern AlUla contains one of the most exceptional heritage sites in Saudi Arabia, and one of the reasons the old town of AlUla has such rich stories and details is that it was actually inhabited in the not-so-distant past.

The Oasis Path, a path between the archaeological sites of Dadan and the ancient town of Al-Ula, with a distance of 3 km. Where visitors will wander through oases and farms and hike through beautiful landscapes such as palm trees, valleys and mountains, and the tour route ends on the Orange Road opposite the old city.

-elephant rock : Rising from the golden sands of the desert and soaring into the sky of Saudi Arabia, the stunning Elephant Mountain is one of AlUla's many geological wonders. Unlike the ornate, hand-carved facades of the Nabataean tombs in nearby Hegra, the trunk and body of this red sand mountain were shaped by the forces of nature over millions of years of wind and water erosion. The natural beauty of the structure is enhanced by the charm of its rich surroundings with a soft sandy sea studded with stunning huge rock outcroppings, many of which take on distinctive, interesting shapes.
